

Pathfinder Club Plans Activities at Adventist Church

Plans for a full year of youth activities, crafts and achievements have been formulated at the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist church by the Pathfinder Club.

The local project is part of a nation-wide organization throughout Seventh-day Adventist churches to provide Christian guidance for youth and teenagers.

Each Monday evening there are planned crafts and other projects for the various ages, such as knot tying, signaling, radio, cooking, and knitting. Nature subjects of flowers, trees, birds, butterflies and shells are popular projects for collection and study.

An active year has been planned for the Pathfinder Club, including an all day field trip each month and a nature walk every month.

The Pathfinder club is a community-wide project, according to Jack Moraine, leader, and all boys and girls, ages 9 through 15 are invited to meet at the recreation hall on Mondays from 7:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and participate in the activities planned for them.

Redondo Beach Church Topic

Dr. Earl D. Barnum, minister of the Church of Religious Science Ruby st. and Catalina ave., Redondo Beach, announces that his subject for Sunday, February 10, is "The Quest for Life."

Sunday services of the church and the Metateens will be held class on church membership, especially for new members.

Bible study and a prayer meeting will be held Wednesday, February 13, at 7:30 p.m. Choir rehearsal is scheduled for Thursday, 7:30 p.m.

Nursery is provided at all church services.

concurrently at 11 a.m. The children's church services will begin seven minutes before 11 a.m. A nursery for infants and the younger children is provided and is under the supervision of a registered nurse.

A fifteen minute meditation period precedes the church services, with organ music by the church organist, Jean Rhodes.

The inspiration hour will be held Wednesday, February 13 at 1 p.m. in the classroom. The subject this week is "The Ever-where-ness of God." Dr. Barnum will be the speaker.

The public is invited to all church activities.
